PROGRAM IDEAS FOR YOUR FIRST MONTH OF DEN MEETINGS

Theme: "Bobcats All"

USE THIS RESOURCE FOR YOUR FIRST MONTH'S MEETINGS IF YOU HAVE ALL NEW BOYS IN YOUR DEN (THEY HAVEN'T EARNED THE BOBCAT BADGE.)

Every boy who joins Cub Scouting must earn the Bobcat badge first. So, what could be a better first theme than "Bobcats All".

The Bobcat requirements include the fundamentals of Cub Scouting. Keep in mind that boys should do these requirements with their parents at home. The den meeting plans will include practicing the requirements at the meeting, but parents should still approve their completion in the boys' books.

Tiger Cubs may take longer than one month to complete the Bobcat badge. They should, however, strive to complete requirements for the Tiger Cub Immediate Recognition emblem by the end of the first month.

The objectives for this month's den meetings are to give every boy the opportunity to work toward his first award—Bobcat—to complete organization of the den, to get acquainted, and to give leaders and boys an idea of how den meetings are conducted.

This pamphlet outlines the Tiger Cub, Cub Scout, and Webelos den meetings this month. This month's openings, closing gatherings, and den activities are designed to be simple and fun, using materials you might have around your house. Below are the details on parts of the den meetings outlined on pages 4, 5, and 7.

Den Code Of Conduct

Boys will respond to and respect rules if they have a part in setting them. Before your first den meeting, think about some of the rules you would like to have your den follow at meetings. Have a large piece of paper or poster board and a marking pen ready for the meeting.

During the business part of your first den meeting, introduce the idea of a Den Code of Conduct by asking, "What are some of the things you are not allowed to do in your home?" As boys respond, have them adapt home rules for the den; as they agree on rules, write them on the piece of paper. When they agree on the entire list, post it at all of your den meetings.

Ask, "What should happen if someone breaks a part of the code?" and let the boys discuss this. One possibility is that the first time he must phone home and have his parents pick him up immediately. (If you do this, make provisions for someone to pick up your son, if necessary.)

Share the code of conduct with the parents of your Cub Scouts.

Conduct Candle

Some dens use a "Conduct Candle" as an incentive for good behavior. A large candle is lit at the start of the den meeting, and stays lit until there is a behavior problem, or until the end of the meeting. Tell the boys that when the candle burns to the end, there will be a special den party or field trip.

It Can't Be Done

Say that you can jump backward farther than the boys can jump forward if they do exactly as you do. Then grasp your toes and hop backward a few inches. When the boys assume the same position, they'll find they can't budge when they try to jump forward.

Guess Who I Am

Start by saying, "I will answer yes or no to 20 questions while you try to find out who I am." This is a good den game that can also keep boys busy and quiet at the pack meeting. With the help of one leader for each den, leaders can decide who they will be, and the game can be conducted as a contest to see which den can guess who they are. Rotate leaders each time.

Magic Knot Trick

Have several pieces of rope or cord about three feet long. Ask a Cub Scout if he can tie an overhand knot in the middle of one cord without letting go of either end. Let the Cub Scout try it, then show him the trick:

First fold your arms over your chest, then lean over and pick up each end of the cord without unfolding your arms. As you straighten up, unfold your arms—still holding the ends of the cord— and, presto, there's the overhand knot!

Clothespins in a Bottle

Place a narrow-mouthed jar upright on the floor. Give each boy, in turn, 10 clothespins. The boy stands over the bottle and, holding each clothespin at eye level, tries to drop them into the bottle.

Newspaper Softball

Divide your den into two teams. Place a can on either side of "home plate" and balance a rolled newspaper across the tops of the cans. The first "batter" stands behind the newspaper and kicks it with his instep, and the game is on. All the rules of softball are followed except for the method of putting the ball into play.

The Living Circle

The Living Circle is an important Cub Scouting ceremony that may be used as an opening or closing for a den meeting. It reminds the boy of the friendships he is making and links him with all other Cub Scouts and Webelos Scouts.

To form a Living Circle, Cub Scouts and leaders face inward in a close circle. With the right hand, each person gives the Cub Scout sign. They turn slightly to the right and extend left hands into the circle. Each thumb in the circle is pointed to the right, and each person grasps the thumb of the person on his left, making a complete Living Circle handclasp. The promise, Law of the Pack, or motto can then be repeated.

Living Circle

The Living Circle also can be used by moving all of the left hands up and down in a pumping motion while the Cub Scouts say, "A-ke-la! We-e-e-ll do-o-o ou-r-r best," snapping into a circle of individual salutes at the word best.

Clay Snake Slide

Clay is especially versatile for slides, as you can mold it into millions of different unique shapes. Here is one example.

1. Roll about 2 tablespoons of clay into an 8-inch-long rope.
2. Coil clay rope around a $\frac{3}{4}$ -inch dowel that has a light coating of vegetable oil on it.
3. Flatten the head and make a point on the tail.
4. When dry, remove from the dowel; paint and decorate as desired.

Laundry Grab Bag

Fill a large pillowcase or bag with an assortment of old clothing items (hats, shirts, belts, pants, shoes, etc.). Have the Cub Scouts stand in a circle, and give the bag to one of them.

On signal he passes the bag to the player on his left, and he to the next, and so on around the circle. As the bag is being passed around, the leader blows a whistle.

Whoever has the bag in his hand when the whistle sounds must reach inside, take out an article of clothing, and put it on. Play continues until all clothing is being worn.

Spatter Print

For this craft you will need an object such as a leaf or a cut-out design; construction paper; an 8-by-10-inch piece of screen; an old toothbrush; straight pins; and paint.

Spread newspaper over your working area.

Place the object on construction paper and secure it with the pins.

Dip the toothbrush in paint and shake it until almost dry. Hold the screen about six inches above the construction paper. Brush across the screen with the toothbrush, being careful not to spatter yourself.

When the paint has dried, remove the object from the construction paper.

Suggestion: Try white shoe polish or paint on colored construction paper.

Webelos Scout Den Meetings: “Bobcats All”

Sportsman Activity Badge

For your first meeting you will need to have the Webelos Leader Guide, Cub Scout Leader Book, Webelos Scout Handbook and the Cub Scout Leader How-To Book. These items are available through your pack or the local council service center. Review the ideas below to prepare for your first month’s den meetings.

First Month

Welcome to the Webelos (We’ll be Loyal Scouts) den! As a new Webelos leader, you and your Webelos Scouts are probably anxious to get started on the activity badges in the Webelos Scout Handbook. However, if most or all of the boys are new to Cub Scouting, they will first need to earn the Bobcat rank. The meetings outlined here are designed to get the den organized, to help all the boys become Bobcats, and to help them earn the Sportsman activity badge.

Look over the material in the Cub Scout section on the den code of conduct and the gathering activities. We will be using these in the Webelos den meetings, too.

Activity Badges

Each month the Webelos den program will feature one of 20 Webelos activity badges. For these first two months we will work on Sportsman.

Keep in mind that these badges are designed for fourth- and fifth-graders, and there are lots of resources to help you. Take advantage of them, and if you aren’t careful, you might have some fun and learn something, too!

When you start using Cub Scout Program Helps, you will find that there is a pattern involved in earning the activity badges that leads toward earning the Webelos Scout badge and the Arrow of Light Award. Keep this pattern in mind when you plan so that your Webelos Scouts do not miss an activity badge that they need.

Webelos-to-Scout Transition

If your Webelos Scouts are in the fifth grade (or are 10 years old) it is not too early to contact a Boy Scout troop and begin the process of preparing your Webelos Scouts to become Boy Scouts. Your Cub Scout Leader Book and Webelos Leader Guide can help with ideas.

However, you need to be careful, regardless of how old the boys are. Some of us who were Boy Scouts tend to do too many “Boy Scout things” too early.

Keep the age and abilities of your Webelos Scouts in mind, and keep them looking forward to the excitement of Boy Scouting.

Prepare them to become Boy Scouts when the time comes, but don’t make them Boy Scouts too early.

Sportsman Activity Badge

Your Webelos

Leader Book will have more detailed information about other activities and requirements for earning this activity badge.

Sports are usually high on the list of favorites for Webelos Scout-age boys, so most boys will show an instant interest in the Sportsman activity badge. Chances are some of them will already know enough about the rules, techniques, and scoring of several sports to pass the requirements quickly. But that isn’t enough.

We’re not as concerned with the athletic skills as we are with fitness and good citizenship, which help fulfill the purposes of Cub Scouting. Your own example will help to achieve these goals. Be sure that the least skilled boys get just as much instruction and encouragement as the best athletes. See that the better athletes learn not only to tolerate more awkward boys but to help them, and that all boys learn to win and lose with grace. Stress the fun of the game, not just winning.

To earn this badge, boys must earn Cub Scout Sports participation awards for two individual sports and two team sports. This means that a variety of opportunities should be available to them in den meetings.

Forehead Squeeze Relay

Activity level: Moderate

Needed: Large playing area, even number of players, several tennis balls or oranges

The object is for two players in each team to carry a ball or orange across the room and back again by holding it between their foreheads. If dropped, start again. When the first pair completes their circuit, the next pair in that team begins. Hand over the ball or orange quickly.

Balloon Battle Royal

Activity level: High

Needed: Any number of players, balloons, string

Arrange Webelos Scouts in a large circle, each with an inflated balloon tied to his ankle. On a signal, players try to break all other balloons by stomping on them, while not letting their balloon get broken. When a balloon is broken, that player leaves the game. The game continues until only one player is left. Scouts knocked out of the game should be encouraged to cheer on those still playing.
